Professor John F. Cryan

John F. Cryan (PhD MRIA ) is Professor & Chair in the Department of Anatomy & Neuroscience, University College Cork, Ireland and is also a Principal Investigator at APC Microbiome Ireland. Professor Cryan's current research is focused on understanding the interaction between brain, gut & microbiome and how it applies to stress, psychiatric and immune-related disorders at key time-windows across the lifespan.

A/Professor Erin E. Krebs

A/Professor Erin E. Krebs, (MD, MPH) is an internal medicine physician and health services researcher at the Minneapolis Veterans Affairs (VA) Center for Care Delivery and Outcomes Research and University of Minnesota Medical School. Her research addresses clinical questions related to chronic pain and opioid analgesics, informed by her practice as a primary care physician.

Dr Janet Bultitude

Dr Janet Bultitude is a Senior Lecturer at the Psychology Department and Centre for Pain Research at the University of Bath in the United Kingdom. Her research interests are in pain, attention, sensorimotor interaction, and neurorehabilitation. Drawing from her background in stroke research, her most recent work has focused on “neglect-like” changes and other sensory symptoms in Complex Regional Pain Syndrome, and how these could be targeted to bring about pain relief.
